

Many Amusing Features Of The Campaign--How A Congressman Can Campaign Against His Opponent Easily.

everything for certain. He seems confident that he will be nominated. Leurot is quiet and secretive. He is more than that—he is mysterious. Whether he learned this in the under Capital rooms fitted up by the late Governor or not is not known, but he keeps his own council and above all things is just as he is told." Merton did not approve of the democratic state convention. "The rest of the democratic leaders did" and among them John Alyward of Madison. Now, Alyward has the nomination bee in his bonnet and he may complicate matters by taking the field. If he does Merton's chances will go aglimmer and he may complicate and will be backed by the leaders of the party.

Cochems' Plain Talk
In touching upon the congressional situation the plain statement of Henry Cochems, of Milwaukee, who seeks to become a congressman, regarding the manner in which the existing congressional campaigns is interesting. What is true here is also true in the First district, where Nolan is making a game fight against Cooper. For this reason I copy it.

"I have a lively fight on my hands, of course," he said, "for a number of reasons. The candidate who is in always has a marked advantage over the candidate who is out. He is of course entitled to the prestige of any good work he has done in his office and it seems to me that there ought to be, in the public's behalf, some protest made against certain established practices or customs that now exist in the public service."

Uses of Government

As things now stand the various departments of the government upon the requisition of the members of congress, flood the entire district with documents more or less useless, and thousands of dollars' worth of seeds every year. These are sent out with out discrimination, except of political selection from the mailing list of the members of congress. I presume it is fair to estimate that there is spent in each congressional district by the national government for example, including documents, seeds and expenses of mailing, almost $10,000 per year to the national government, and on every piece that goes out, instead of its appearing to come from the general bounty of the government, it appears labeled with the complacent signature of the present member of congress. The result of this is that many people assume that it imposes a personal obligation for the benefaction received by themselves, whereas it is public expense paid for by the public and constitutes in fact a campaign fund for the various members of congress. I say that to give credit to any political officer for seeds sent from the general department of government is a fraud on the public and it is this fact more than any other which is keeping a lot of dupes in congress.

The Postmasters.
In addition to this find as to the campaign through the northern part of Milwaukee county, Waukesha county, that the home papers are largely in the hands of postmasters in the smaller towns, which is a violation of the rules of the department, which strictly forbids this practice. It is unfair to pose upon these officers in that way. I have a number of friends and them, personally whose free access has been foreclosed. The result that when an independent candidate enters the field for this or any other district he must be prepared to give the confidence practically of two-thirds of the independent judges of the district to get a majority.

Denver, Colo., July 7.—A glimpse at the streets or other public place of Denver today would give the impression that every member of the order of Elks throughout the land was in the city with his family and friends. Eight thousand is a conservative estimate of the number of visitors, and they represent every nook and corner of the country. The delegates got down to business at the opening of the convention in the afternoon. At the great majority of the visitors were left free to enjoy a portion of the $100,000 entertainment provided for them by the city of Denver. Every member of the antlered herd is found in his praise of the arrangements made for the reception and entertainment of the visitors. All day entertainment was provided today at Elitch's Gardens, with a wild-west show in University park, band concerts at City park, automobile rides for the ladies and innumerable other attractions thrown in. SAND HILLS SOUTH OF CITY ARE BUSY.

UNUSUAL ACTIVITY SHOWN

Bee Hive Of Workers Laying Up The Silica Sand.

Although the thermometer has registered considerable over a hundred in the sand hills on the southern part of the city, work has not been deterred. There are more men employed in that section of the city now than ever before and every concern in this locality seems to be busily engaged in taking the silica sand from the big hills in large quantities. The erection of the new sand-ladder has greatly added to the amount of sand used daily and it is stated that this machine will load a flat car in less than an hour.

Large Numbers.
The Rock County Concrete Stone company has the usual amount of men engaged and their stock of stone has greatly increased in the last month. The Brooklyn stores, which were to be erected by this concern are near completion and when finished will be very handsome structures as the plans show. These stone blocks are being used considerably for foundations and other places where stone was formerly used and seems to be giving entire satisfaction. The Madison House which has just been moved is having a foundation built of this material. A residence is being built in Milton entirely of this same block stone.

Many Brick.
The Silica Brick and Stone company have some 600,000 brick in their yard and shipments are being made daily to Plattville for the State Normal, which is being erected there. Some 100,000 brick have been sent to that city and the order, when complete, will number about 250,000. Shipments are being made every week to Rockford and Milwaukee, where they have become very popular as a building material. As soon as the bid for the erection of the new United Brethren church has been let, the brick will be furnished by this concern for the plans calls for this material. A new warehouse is being erected in Evansville for the Baker Manufacturing company and the order calls for 100,000 brick. This concern is one of the few manufacturers in the country that make this kind of material and the people are just beginning to take hold of it as a building material.

Carload Supplies.
The Janesville Cement Post company have begun to make the posts for the Chicago-Milwaukee Electric company and today received a carload of wire for that purpose. About eight hundred posts are being made daily by some fifteen men and it is expected that it will be some three months before the big job is completed. These posts are very popular as line fences, and several in this city have been erected in the past few weeks and because of their neat appearance have caused much praise from the purchasers.

New Machinery.
The Silica Stone company has just installed a new Victor Concrete mixing machine and expect to be running full force in a few days. Next week they will start to make the stone for the Burton & Bleasdale windmill factory, which is to be erected soon. Several other buildings are being figured upon, one of which is a concrete stone residence and another a warehouse for a local factory. This concern has been shipping blocks to Milwaukee, where they have a contractor who uses their stone alone.

Two Hundred Excursionists. Some two hundred left this morning for Milwaukee on the excursion of the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Catholic church.

The "Quality" of Pabst Beer

The Best Materials And The Cleanest Process Makes It Most Popular.

Pabst's process of brewing is exclusive all the way through, and that is the "reason why" Pabst beer is today the most popular brand of beer in the world.

People know when they drink Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer that it is the cleanest beer in the world—because it never is touched by human hands in its entire process of manufacture.

People know when they drink Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer that it is the richest beer in the world, because it is made from the exclusive Pabst eight-day malt, which is the only malt in the world that retains all of the richness of the barley.

People know when they drink Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer that they are drinking a beer that is fully aged, because it is aged by the exclusive Pabst process and is never mixed with "young" beer to give it head or body.

"The Warrens" of Chicago Here Sunday.

Now the Janesville Eagles are to meet those mighty farmer boys of Footville. The arrangements for the game have been made and Saturday is chosen for the date and the Footville park as the grounds. Footville will put forth an extra effort to win, for she is now looking with covetous eyes for the championship of Rock County. However, the Milton Greys are as yet undefeated and the winner of Saturday's game will have to play the college town boys before claiming the title.

Next Sunday's Game.
For next Sunday at Eagle park here a Chicago team is slated to play the Eagles. The nine is known as "The Warrens" and is a member of the Chicago Commercial League, the players being employees of the Standard Paint company.

WENT TOO FAST FOR THE SPARROW COPSChicago Policemen Thicker Than Hops
on the Automobile Routes

Nowadays.
David Holmes and Edward Peterson returned from Chicago late Saturday evening with Mr. Holmes' new Slodard-Dayton automobile, fifty-horsepower, having made the run from the Windy City in six hours' running time. The machine was driven by an expert from Chicago. While riding in the machine on Friday evening in Chicago one of the auto policemen or "Sparrow Cops," detailed to watch all automobilists, stopped the party and made them light a lamp that had gone out. Saturday the party had another experience in Lincoln Park, when a policeman suddenly stepped from behind a bush and told them they were going too fast to suit his ideas. Chicago is full of these policemen. They are mounted on fast horses or motor cycles and if the autoists signalled to stop do not do so they puncture the tires with revolver shots.

CLUB DAY AT LINKS;
MANY ENJOY GAMESClub Supper and Dance This Evening—
Much Interest in the Contests.

This afternoon the weekly contests for the golf trophies are being played for at the Sunnyside links. There are a goodly number of players and a large gallery is following the leaders. This evening at six the weekly club supper will be held and this evening the Tuesday night dance will take place. Owing to the small attendance at the last two or three dances the house committee is considering cutting this pleasant feature out entirely unless more interest is shown and the attendance larger.

Sunday afternoon the first Eight-some with two balls ever played over the local course was indulged in. Two teams composed of H. R. King, Mark Bostwick, Leo Brownell, P. L. Myers, H. Mercereau, Fred Baker, Fred Weeks, and H. B. Fairchild called the Blatz Wainers and Buob's Exports, drilled over nine holes. The Buob's Exports winning by a score of two up.

In the second round of match play today for the Bradley trophy the players were paired off with handicaps as follows: J. E. Field, 5; H. G. Carter, 3; O. Sutherland, 8; A. Schaller, 0; Harry Haggart, 12; Edward Baumann, 10; J. P. Baker, 3; Wilson Lane, 12. The ladies are also playing the semi-finals for the Fifield trophy. Mrs. Page and Mrs. Frank Blodgett, and Mrs. A. J. Harris and Miss Catherine Fifield, are matched without handicaps.

LOCAL FACTORY MAKES
MORE ARRANGEMENTSTo Better Handle the Manufacture of Cement Machinery—Factory Here.

Recently papers have been signed by the Victor Concrete Manufacturing company of this city and the National Building Block Machine company of Milwaukee which will consolidate these two concerns under the name of the National Concrete Machinery company. The capital stock was placed at $75,000. By this consolidation the firm expects to manufacture nearly all the different machines used in the manufacture of concrete stone and brick. The local concern which recently started a new factory in the Taylor and Lowell buildings on the northern part of the city have been making two machines—one of which was called the Victor Concrete mixer, which was found to be a great success, and the other a post machine. The Milwaukee firm manufactured the National Building Block Machine and in uniting with the Victor people the new concern will make machines for the manufacture of a two-piece block, a one-piece block for foundations, a brick machine, also a sand-mixer and a post machine. The officers of the company will be J. P. Sherer, Pres.; J. E. Whitnell, Vice Pres.; A. F. John, General Manager and Treas., and Victor E. Rogers of this city. Sec. The Victor people will still retain the two manufacturing plants in this city, but the machines will be made under the name of the new concern. They will still retain Wisconsin as far as the manufacture of cement posts is concerned. All those interested are men of some years' experience and the new concern will undoubtedly be a great success.

ASKS CORRECTIONS
REGARDING FACTSPress Agent of the Christian Science
Church Writes About Mistakes.

On July 3 the Gazette published a dispatch from Boston regarding the work of Mrs. Eddy and her finances. In a letter from Alfred Farlow of the publication committee of the church corrections are asked. For example, one portion of the Gazette article stated the work of Mrs. Eddy on science and health had reached an issue of 488,000 copies. It appears the book only has 402,000 copies issued. Also that the cost was fifty cents to the publisher while it retailed at much more. This is also denied, as the cost is said to be much greater. The amount of money Mrs. Eddy made out of the Massachusetts Mathematical College is also said to be pure guesswork, although no different figures are given. The letter, however, does state that Mrs. Eddy never received and compensation for healing patients except in one case. A protest is also made against referring to Mrs. Eddy as "Mother." The letter is quite lengthy and the above brief excerpts are reprinted where corrections are made definite.

Barn, Fired by Children at Play, Consumed and Many Buildings Threatened.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milton, July 17.—The barn of Mrs. E. M. Dunn was totally destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock last night. The department responded to the alarm promptly, but when they arrived the interior of the barn was a mass of flames and their attention was given to nearby buildings, which were endangered, but were saved. The fire was caused without doubt by children who used the barn as a playhouse that afternoon and admitted they had matches. The building was insured for $200 in the N. W. National agency of R. W. Clarke.

C. C. Smith, general manager of the Smith & Holtum Mfg. The company now employs 15 men, but expects to enlarge its plant and operating force. P. S. Peterson of Janesville, a representative on the road, has been making an effort to induce the management to locate here. He says that in case a decision in favor of the Bower City is made no bonus will be asked. Clinton business men will undoubtedly make an effort to retain the factory.

THE REAL CAUSE

The Ancient Scalp-Fever Theory Exploded.
At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.

HEAD OF LETTUCE

Harvested by Janesville Man's Brother at Milton—Whitford Memorial Hall Nearly Completed.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Milton, July 17.—Dr. J. H. Burdick harvested a head of lettuce recently that was fifty-two inches in circumference and thirteen inches in depth. It was of the Grand Rapids variety and came from the agricultural department at Washington.

Whitford Memorial hall is approaching completion and the heating plant for that and the main building is being put in by Babcock and son. The memorial hall is an up-to-date building and adds very much to the appearance of the campus, in fact, there are few structures in the county that are its superior in appearance. Miltonians are justly proud of Memorial hall and wish you to see it.

The Whitewater Register in its article on the Whitewater-Burlington game, says: "Place the all around ball player from Milton, followed Hinkley in the box and held the enemy out for the remainder of the game. That was not all Mr. Place did, however. He played short stop in the previous innings and went to bat occasionally. Not only did he gobble up grounders in a professional manner but at the bat he lined out hits just as if he had many times up, and was trying to help him. In spite of his valuable assistance in every part of the game—and he helped on the bases too, just we forget it—the boys could not best their hard-hitting opponents."

BLOODY SIX-ROUND BATTLE
Sam Berger and Philadelphia Jack O'Brien Have Hard Ring Fight in the Quaker City.

Philadelphia, July 17.—Sam Berger, the California amateur heavyweight, Monday night gave Philadelphia Jack O'Brien the hardest six-round battle of his career. Notwithstanding that O'Brien continually sent his left to the chin and wind, Berger came back and forced the fighting in every round.

O'Brien had all the advantage in the opening round and landed almost at will. His footwork seemed to dazzle Berger, but as the fight progressed the Californian improved. In the second round Berger opened up a deep gash over O'Brien's left eye and the Philadelphia had Berger bleeding from the nose. Both men were covered with blood as they went to their corners.

The third round was one of the fastest ever witnessed in this city between heavyweights. O'Brien was forced to use all his cunning to avoid Berger's rushes, and the latter again opened up O'Brien's damaged eye with a vicious right.

The fourth round was a repetition of the third. It was a fight and a fight, and the time the men faced each other until the going sounded.

Berger had the Philadelphia decided worried in the two closing rounds.

When the fight ended both men were covered with blood, and the referee's shirt was crimson with his efforts to separate them.

No decision is allowed in the bout in this city, but it seemed to be the consensus of opinion that O'Brien had a slight advantage.

...FORTY YEARS AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, July 17th, 1866.—The Weather—Today at three o'clock, ninety-six in the shade.

Want Us To Pull Hair—A subscriber wants us to wage into the Common Council with a perfect looseness for their disregard of sanitary measures. He says a large number of pestilence-breeding nuisances exist which the City Fathers are as oblivious of as though they were, as Mrs. Partington gravely says, "Manured" to such things. "Gully, or not gully?" That's the question, gentlemen of the Council.

Too Much Exercise.—We saw in the hot street this forenoon a pair of male juveniles playing horse. The boy that was the horse was in short leading lines and having got the bit in his teeth, was tearing ahead at a two-forty gait, fairly dragging his driver after him. With the mercury at 120 degrees in the sunshine, we should prefer some lighter exercise; but what cares Young America for heat when there's fun ahead.

Not Received.—The letter of Secretary Seward to the pound keeper of Washington County has not been received as yet. We have no doubt that when it comes to hand it will state that the rebellion was crushed in ninety days or that no plan of reconstruction except that of President Johnson is now before the country. Great is humbug.

Fair of the Wisconsin Agricultural and Mechanical Association.—At a recent meeting of the executive committee, a resolution was passed to hold a four days' fair commencing on the 11th of September, on their grounds in Milwaukee, a premium list of five thousand dollars for the best horses, cattle, sheep and swine, with discretionary premiums for machinery and agricultural implements is offered. The grounds have been put in fine condition for the occasion. The officers of the Association are energetic men who will leave nothing undone to make the fair attractive and profitable.

Fond du Lac County Makes An Appropriation.—At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Fond du Lac county, held a day or two since, that body appropriated the sum of $1,350 to aid in the survey of Rock River.

This is a good farm, only 1/2 mile from good store, creamery, blacksmith shop and school. Farm is owned by a widow lady who has to help to work it. Price, $5,300.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—For house and lot or small farm, 80 acres, 4 1/2 miles from Pittsville, 1 1/2 miles from Hansen, Wood Co., Wis. This is nice level land, free from stone; clay loam; all heavy timber, mostly hard maple, some ash; small spring creek through land, will make fine farm, when cleared, timber enough to pay for land and clearing also. Price, $25 per acre. Bennett, Little & Co.

100 ACRES of nice level black land in Lamoure county, North Dakota; will sell or exchange for city property.

have not increased with the profits of farming. But, while the south as yet offers insufficient inducements to the immigrant who aspires to be nothing better than a day laborer, there are excellent chances for the man who has money to buy land and work it for himself. If it is not practicable for farmers to pay wages which will attract immigration, the better sort might be induced by a proper presentation of the opportunities which await the small landholder.

A MESSAGE TO THE SOUTH.

In his North Carolina speech, Secretary Taft sounded a new note—that of the disadvantage to the south of a single political party. Parties at the present time have their reason for existence primarily in economic questions. With one party dominating the political thought, these great questions with which the prosperity of the people is involved never receive that accuracy of statement and that fulness of discussion which is necessary for a satisfactory solution.

There are two great questions in the south which the one-party system of state government has failed to consider adequately. Because of the comparative absence of discussion, they are the tariff question and the labor question. The tariff question seldom receives adequate recognition in the campaigns of the southern states. This is not from any lack of interest in the subject, but largely from the want of something like equal capacity to present the subject effectively. With the growth of manufactures the tendency has been to take the tariff for granted without discussion and to leave things go along in their own way. When Senator McLaughlin, at tempted to represent the great industrial interest of his state, so much personal animosity was thrown into the campaign as to give a subordinate place to the real economic issues. Everywhere the dominance of a partisan sentiment seeks to subordinate everything else to the political traditions rather than to the ways and means of material advancement.

The labor question is another one to which the south needs above all things to give open, candid and free discussion. Hitherto the fear of the negro domination, which Mr. Taft mentions, has served to keep men from concentrating their attention upon the great problem of improving the condition of labor and of recognizing the relation between the employer and the employed.

But the time seems to have come when the south is delivering itself from the hypnotism of race fear and one-party fealty. The race question is settled. If the dominant party will permit it to stay settled. The growth of a protective sentiment among manufacturers will gradually result in the real and true issue being presented on its merits as a party of national policy. That will go far toward making the south realize that it is not a separate section with isolated modes of thought, but rather an organic part, economically as well as politically, of this republic. Already the state legislatures have so far laid aside political considerations as to place upon the statute books helpful laws for the limitations of child labor in industries.

But the greatest force now coming to the front in the south is the young man who has come to his majority within the last decade. These men are seeing conditions with other eyes than their fathers' used. They are living in times which call for different conceptions of civil and political duty. They feel a stronger pulsation of interest in the development of material resources and in the up-building of their institutional life. They are in close touch with the great centers of the country's trade and industry. They understand more clearly the demands of modern times upon the individual citizen. Their fears are less, their hopes are mightier. If this younger generation has an open ear to the teachings of Secretary Taft on the misfortune of a one-party policy, then the seed which he has sown has not fallen in stony places.

PRESS COMMENT.

Ibsen's Idea of Americans.

Exchange. The late Henrik Ibsen was once asked his idea of Americans. "Well," said Ibsen, smiling, "it is my idea that the average American baby five or six months old sits in his mother's lap, and even his own cradle to see if he can't invent a better one or at least suggest some improvement."

What's He Want Now?

Grassie in Evening Wisconsin. Now La Follette is going through the country reading off the names of the United States senators who didn't vote as he liked. It was only a few years ago that he was reading off the names of the assemblymen and state senators of Wisconsin. He was candidate for governor then. What is he candidate for now?

The Br'er Needs Rest.

Milwaukee Journal. It was to be expected that Ex-Governor Hoard would refuse to be a candidate for congress. The place could confer no honor upon him, and it is not necessary for him to take upon himself the drudgery that a congressman cannot avoid. Br'er Hoard has earned a rest and he has earned enough to make it possible for him to take one.

Taming The Woodland Pussie.

Evansville Review. Merrillian has a skunk farm. Some time ago twenty-five wild skunks were captured and placed in small pens surrounded by woven wire fencing, and they have multiplied to the extent of sixty-three young ones. It is said that these skunks are as gentle as kittens and equally as harmless. Skunk or no skunk we'll take our chances with the kittens.

Milwaukee's Claims.

La Crosse Chronicle. Milwaukee claims to have 353,352 people, and points to her latest directory to prove it. A year ago the census showed 312,000, a gain of 25,000 in five years. While the latest figures indicate an increase of 40,000 in one year. Perhaps it would be well not to pin too much faith on the latest directory estimate.

Taft The Bold Invader.

Chicago News. Secretary Taft in the act of taking a day off to convert the south to republicanism is certainly a sight to cause one to pause and wonder if the age of heroism is really past. Of course he may have to stop during the course of his speech to explain to those who never heard of it what republicanism is, but that is nothing to a great man who has a great cause at heart. While we cannot get returns from the noble effort until election day, we may live in hope. The power of habit is strong and the south may be like the man who insisted that he was going to vote for Bryan over after. "For," said he, "I voted for him twice and see what good times we have been having ever since."

The Financial Situation.

Wall Street Journal. The adjournment of congress and the growing assurance of large crops leaves the money conditions as the most doubtful feature of the situation. The facts of the position of the banks as regards loans and reserves are well known, and their significance generally appreciated. It will be difficult to finance the harvesting of the big crops. It is well, however, to take full account of the two strong points of the situation, namely, our ability to obtain new reserves of gold from abroad, and second, the ability of the treasury to afford relief in case of severe pressure.

Appalling Fire Insurance Loss.

Evening Wisconsin. The fire loss figures for June, compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce, have come to hand—an aggregate for the United States and Canada of $13,950,650, compared with $11,789,900 in the corresponding month last year, and $10,646,700 in June, 1904. The fire loss for the first half of 1905 is now known—$367,665,550. This is an enormous sum. The fire loss for the first six months of 1905 was $39,111,900, and for the corresponding period of 1904, $172,534,350. The figures in 1904 were swollen by the Baltimore fire. The figures this year are swollen by the conflagration following the earthquake at San Francisco. Never before in the history of the country has the destruction of property aggregated as much. In the course of an entire year as it has in the past six months.

Wisconsin Editors Of 1872.

Nearby Times. The Times editor today came across a copy of the proceedings of the state editorial convention held in Madison on June 18, 1872. Ah, what recollections it brought to us. Wife and self-attended that notable gathering. And among the leading spirits of the occasion were Orator James Ross, Madison; A. T. Glaze, Ripon; E. D. Coe, Whitewater; S. D. ("Pump") Carpenter, Madison; W. D. Hoard, Lake Mills; H. N. Ross, Sheboygan; W. E. Cramer, Milwaukee; J. A. Watrous, Fond du Lac; L. B. Noyes, Marinette; John Hicks, Oshkosh; Caleb Swayze, Stevens Point; Sam Field, Ashland; E. O. Kimberley, Brodhead; H. Morley, Oshkosh; Charles Seymour, La Crosse; A. J. ("Jack") Turner, Portage; H. R. Farnum, Madison; David Atwood, Madison; P. R. Proctor, De Pere; John J. Hume, Chilton; T. T. Allen, Oshkosh; and other old-time editorial figures. But, alas, of these not a half dozen could respond to roll call were it today. The cycle of time has rolled around to the year of "23," with unfailling regularity. The newspaper ethics of those days were not quite so polite as they are today, but truer hearts never graced the tripod nor abler hands the pen.

Evening The Longworth Tour.

Evening Wisconsin. The Longworth European tour has been on the whole so pleasant that an incident or two of the character of those which have been casually lately was almost necessary to relieve monotony. What signifies the lumbering railway of Punch in the face of the elaborate courtesies extended by King Edward to the American visitors unless Punch's gibes are approved by the English people? Of such approval there is no indication. In Germany pointed attentions bestowed by the Emperor upon the American visitors excited the envy of a few representatives of the pride of heraldry, who secured as their spokesmen the editor of the Leipziger Tageblatt. There was no international significance in the Tageblatt's boorish scolding.

From Madrid comes a dispatch which is interesting if true. It is to the effect that King Alfonso and the court and aristocratic circles generally are commenting unfavorably upon the fact that the Princess Eulalie, attended the banquet given in Paris on Monday night by the American ambassador for Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, and that the king has telegraphed his disapproval to the Princess. Eulalie had very friendly relations with Americans before the late war, and is evidently of the opinion that the war is over. The king is doubtless more familiar than she with Spanish politics, and it is quite conceivable that he may consider it unwise for members of his family to advertise special friendliness for American or Americans at this brief distance of time from the occurrence which dissociated Spain from her colonies.

Rivalry.

Traveler (whose train has stopped for coal and water). "Why don't you people here annex that little town we passed through about a mile back?" Native (on the station platform). "Gosh! That's what we've been wanting to do, but they're tryin' to annex us now, an' we'll fight 'em till the Pannimaw canal's finished, fore we'll let 'em do that!"

STATES AIDING IN HIGHWAY BUILDING

Twenty-Two States Now Assisting Local Districts in Constructing Permanent Roads.

One-half of the states of the union have recognized the fact that good roads are a matter of state-wide importance, not of local significance entirely, and are aiding the counties and country districts to construct good, permanent highways. The states pay various percentages of the cost of building the roads, ranging from one quarter in Ohio to three-quarters in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Pennsylvania, and all roads built in this way are built under the supervision of the state's trained engineers. Seventeen of these states spent all together about five million dollars of state money in aiding in road building in 1905.

This principle of state aid has been recognized in Europe for many years, and the effect is seen in the almost perfect systems of roads which exist in many countries. It remained for New Jersey to start the ball rolling on this side of the Atlantic in 1892, and since that time there are twenty-two states that have adopted the same policy. These are New Jersey, Massachusetts, Vermont, Connecticut, New York, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, Maine, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Colorado, Washington, Idaho, Utah and California.

Although Wisconsin is entirely surrounded by states that are giving money to aid in building permanent country roads, it is doing nothing in this line itself and appears to be considerably behind its neighbors. This state has had a handicap in the shape of a constitutional provision, which was designed to prevent the state from running itself in debt to help build railroads, forbidding the appropriation of money for internal improvements. This was a wise act at that time, but has been outgrown. The last legislature passed an act to amend the constitution so as to permit the state to aid in road building. This must pass the next legislature and then be favorably voted on by the people before it can take effect. In the mean time the State Geological survey is collecting information regarding the roads to find out what is most needed in the way of state aid.

When the constitution is changed so that the state can appropriate money to aid road-building Wisconsin will be in an exceptionally fortunate position. On account of the new railroad tax the state income will be large enough to pay its regular running expenses and whatever is needed for roads, without being obliged to levy a general state tax.

Spread of English Language.

Nearly one-half of the shipping traffic to and from Antwerp is carried on under the British and American flags and this has made Antwerp almost an English-speaking port. Free night schools for exclusive classes in English organized by the city authorities, are attended by thousands of pupils, while special attention is paid to the study of English in all the grades of the day schools, public as well as private. This desire to popularize the English language is not confined to Belgium, but has extended to Germany as well, where schools of instruction have already been established at Munich and Nuremberg by the German government.

Public Baths for Dogs.

At Dresden a new bath for dogs has been opened for the convenience of busy people who have not the time to look after the cleanliness of their own pets. Dogs are left at the bath by men on their way to business, and during the day they are kept in kennels cared for, given a wash and a good rub down, clipped if necessary, and returned to their masters when the day's work is done.

Commerce and Literature.

"Do you think that a commercial career is to be compared to a literary career?" asked the high-browed and melancholy youth. "My boy," said Mr. Cumrox, "in business you can write your name on a piece of paper no bigger than a postal card and make it worth thousands of dollars. In literature you can write up reams of paper without making it worth 50 cents."

Best Kind of Children.

Briggs—"You call on the Dimpletons very often? What sort of children have they?" Griggs—"Perfect! Best in the world." Tell me about them. What are they like?" "Oh, I've never seen them."

Evil of Procrastination.

The world is full of men and women who seem intelligent, who might succeed, and yet go plodding along in their little clerkships or other little routine place, because they lack power to force themselves out of procrastination's rut. They expect to begin the struggle some time, but the time never comes.—N. Y. Journal.

Poetic Appreciation of Gold.

Genius scorns the power of gold; it is wrong. Gold is the war-cry on its chariot, which mows down the millions of its foes, and gives free passage to the sun-burners with which it leaves those heavenly fields of light for the gross battlefields of earth.—Ouida (Louise de la Rame).

Sagacity of Elephants.

Sagacity seems a strong word to apply to an elephant, but certainly the tales of those who know the beast would justify the term. It is said that the elephants in India will be smart themselves with mud as a protection against insects, and that they will break branches from the trees and use them to brush away the flies.

This Proposition Is Now Up

Can we longer afford to overlook the fact that we can secure the very best of dental service at about half the rates we have been paying? Dr. Richards of Janesville, the independent dentist, says he would be delighted to have his work (put out at a modest price) compared with work done by others at possibly double his prices. He affirms that the comparison will establish the fact that his work is good in every respect. His work is lasting. His work is done thoroughly. His work is substantial, and, in fact, not excelled by that of any other local dentist.

In addition to the reasonableness of his prices he gives close attention to painless work. Now see what you get by having him do your dental work.

ONE ELECTRIC PIANO MAKES $50 A MONTH

Lots of Spare Change Is Tossed to the Muses in Janesville—Thometz vs. Wickert Case.

Before Justice Earle, this morning, attorneys Ryan and Cunningham made their closing arguments in the action of Harry Thometz vs. Paul Wickert, brought by the plaintiff to recover rental and expenses of transporting an electric piano from Dodgeville and setting it up in the bar room formerly conducted by the defendant. Under the alleged agreement the piano was to be put in the Wickert place and if it proved satisfactory, the latter was to buy it for $400; if it did not, he was to pay expenses. He appears to have done neither one thing nor the other. In the examination of witnesses yesterday a question arose as to whether a nickel-in-the-slot piano was a gambling device. Mr. Thometz believed it was an automatic, collector and no more reprehensible than a slot telephone, or the fare-box on a street car, in as much as the investor got fair value for his money. Apropos of playing on a Janesville street car was something of a gambol. Witness Kimball testified that he went into the slot of one of these pianos each month, which shows local devotion to the beautiful worthy of passing comment. Judge Earle will render his decision in the case on Saturday.

SHE RECOVERED $7 ON $30 BOARD BILL

Action of Anna Churchill vs. Mantel Fish Settled This Morning—Beloit Case Adjudicated.

In municipal court this morning, the action of Anna Churchill vs. Mantel Fish, brought by the plaintiff in Justice Reeder's court, to recover some thirty odd dollars alleged to be due for board and taken up on a deal from the judgment of $34.12, and costs, amounting in all to $50.76, for the plaintiff, was settled, the defendant agreeing to pay $7.25 and costs amounting to $14.93 for the appeal action besides the costs of the original case. Jesse Earle appeared for the plaintiff and Pierce E. Fisher for the defendant. The action of the State vs. Charles Bedell, brought here on a change of venue from the Beloit municipal court, was adjourned to July 24 and is likely to be dismissed at that time. G. H. Goodrich of Beloit entered the complaint against Bedell, charging him with maliciously damaging property by breaking into his bakery on Sunday and smashing a glass show-case which belonged to C. A. Emerson. The action is said to be a sequel to one recently brought against Goodrich by Bedell when the latter charged the former with threatening to kill him.

CURRENT NEWS

Fear Move for Double Track. The appropriation of a double track on South Main street, in case the H. H. Clough project of an interurban line to Madison comes to fruition, is worrying some of the owners of property on that thoroughfare and Fred E. Green has been circulating a petition protesting against any such grant by the city, which has been signed quite generally. This is the first intimation that the company wants or will ask for a double track on any street and many will be disposed to believe that anxiety is unwarranted on a proposition the promoters have never even entertained.

Back Playing Ball. The First Wisconsin Regiment guards, who are gathered for their annual outing at Camp Douglas, are having much sport playing baseball. The regiment team is playing the Camp Douglas semi-professionals a series of games and Charles Buck of Beloit, formerly of Janesville, is holding down the second bag.

Grand Army Man. Dr. W. D. McAfee of Rockford, a prominent Grand Army man and well known among the Janesville veterans, being a member of the Rockford Lobster Quakerette, is very ill at his apartments in the Forest City. His condition has been low for some time and yesterday and this morning he failed to recognize any of those about his bedside.

Growing Exotic Plants. When L. M. Nelson was in Alabama some months ago he secured a number of seeds, sprouts and bulbs which were subsequently planted about the court-house. He now has growing there a little magnolia tree, some cotton plants, pear cactus, myrtle and jasmine vines, velvet beans and a number of other plants not commonly seen in the north.

Big Silk Mushroom. On the stump of an old maple tree near the McGowan home on Milton avenue yesterday Horace McElroy picked a big silk mushroom, the cap of which measured 27 inches in circumference. Foresters' picnic. Members of St. Mary's Court No. 175, W. C. O. F., and their friends are for the Foresters' picnic at Harlem Park. The car leaves at 9:15 Wednesday morning.

Drowned in Mississippi. Word was received today from Mrs. Roy Sizer of Miles, Iowa, formerly Miss Elva Knox of this city, of the drowning of Mr. Sizer's brother, Harry, in Mississippi River near Port Byron. No mention was made in the message as to how the accident occurred.

Ringlings August 12. It is reported that a member of the Ringling Brothers circus advertising force was in the city today and stated that the big shows would be here August 12. The man could not be located and the rumor remains unconfirmed.

Not Seriously Hurt. Fred Vogel, who was hurt while at work in the North-Western roundhouse yesterday afternoon, is resting comfortably at the Palmer hospital, having sustained nothing more serious than a flesh wound and a slight contusion of the skull. He will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

STRANGE STORY OF JANESVILLE MAN

Who Is Harry Schard Mentioned in a Dispatch From Basin, Wyoming?

In a dispatch from Basin, Wyoming, a story is told of a Harry Schard, son of a wealthy Janesville, Wisconsin, banker, who gave out he had been drowned to escape officers who were seeking him for a criminal charge. A Telegram to the editor of the Rustler in Basin brings no response and the dispatch is given for its face value, as no one in Janesville knows Harry Schard or ever heard of him. The dispatch is as follows:

The Dispatch. Basin, Wyo., July 14.—Harry Schard of Janesville, Wis., who was supposed to have been drowned while attempting to swim the Big Horn river near here three weeks ago, is now said to be alive and well and that the drowning was a ruse on his part to escape detectives who were following him; Schard for a crime alleged to have been committed at Janesville, where his father is a wealthy banker. Schard discovered that detectives had located him and he arranged a fake drowning. He is an expert swimmer and after leaping into the water in the presence of a number of men, he disappeared, swimming a long way under water. He escaped detection, found a suit of clothing he had previously hidden, and left the country. Schard posed as a cook in a grading camp while here.

TOES TORN OUT BY GASOLINE ENGINE

Hugh Miller Injured While Enjoying Launch Trip Up River Last Evening.

Hugh Miller of Fifth avenue met with an unfortunate accident while enjoying a launch trip up the river last evening. In some manner his left foot was caught in the fly wheel of the gasoline engine and before the machine was stopped or he could extricate the member, the two middle toes were terribly torn and mangled, while the big toe was also injured. Dr. R. W. Edden was summoned and the wounds were temporarily dressed, relieving the man's sufferings. This morning the physician performed an operation and removed both injured toes.

TIPS TO TEACHERS BY SUPERINTENDENT

C. P. Cary, Head of the Wisconsin Public Schools, Issues a Few Don'ts.

State Superintendent C. P. Cary is sending an interesting bulletin to the teachers of the state, which will be a guide to their conduct in and after school hours. It is composed of eight "don'ts," several of which are unique.

"When you are blue or feel that you are too weak to stem the tide, read Emerson's essay on self-reliance. It is in good humor with yourself and with everybody else if you can. This is a busy world and you should not think if you do not receive all the attention you believe is due you. Go out to them and do not wait for them to come to you. By all means get acquainted with your board members. Talk over your plans with them. Talk over your needs with them. Do not always talk shop. Do not bore them. If one of them happens to be a crank or a bluffer, hold your own with him, do not let him brow beat you, but remember not to allow yourself to become over-serious in such contests. An over-serious teacher is almost as much of a failure as a frivolous one. Balance and persistence are the qualities needed."

"Do not yield to the temptation to go to parties frequently. No teacher can dance several nights in the week and do her duty by her school. Better cut out all excesses in the way of parties or give up the school and devote your whole time to parties. Do not for one moment get into your head that it is nobody's business but your own what you do at night. Nothing is further from the truth."

"Do not try to win the good-will of your pupils by letting them have their own way. When you think it is best to refuse their requests, do so promptly, decisively but pleasantly, and after that do not let them coax you to change your mind."

Usefulness of Asbestos.

Asbestos can fairly lay claim to the title of being the most useful of all minerals. It has been called a mineralogical vegetable. It is both fibrous and crystalline, elastic, yet brittle, a floating stone, which can be readily carded, spun and woven into tissue. In Germany it is known as ston-flachs (stone flax), and the miners of Quebec give it quite as expressive a name—pierre coton (cotton stone).

In Ireland.

On the edge of a small river in County Cavan, Ireland, is a stone with the inscription: "When this stone is out of sight it is not safe to ford the river." But this is even surpassed by the famous post erected some years ago by the surveyors of the Keat (England) roads: "This is the bridge path to Faversham; if you can't read this, you had better keep to the main road."

Malta-Vita

"The Perfect Food"

The use of pure malt extract with the best whole white wheat makes Malta-Vita so easy to digest, so beneficial to the health and so good to eat. Starch is hard to digest. The malt extract turns the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, which physicians recommend because it is so strengthening and so easily digested. Malta-Vita, rich in maltose, conquers indigestion and constipation. The maltose, too, gives Malta-Vita its fine flavor.

"For many years my husband suffered from indigestion and extreme nervousness. Recently I bought our first package of Malta-Vita. My husband is now in perfect health, his stomach seems strong and his nights prove a source of rest instead of torture. He eats but little meat and pastry and says Malta-Vita takes the place of both. I serve it in many different ways. With fruit it makes delicious desserts. For breakfast it is superior to anything I have put on the table."—Mrs. Valley C. Regan, Rockford, Ill.

Get some Malta-Vita to-day. Eat it with milk or cream or fresh fruit. To those who know how delicious and sustaining Malta-Vita is, a satisfactory breakfast is next thing to impossible without it.

STANDARD OIL MEN FACE INDICTMENT

GOVERNMENT ALTERS PLANS TO SECURE EVIDENCE.

GRAMMER WILL BE CALLED

Vice President of Lake Shore Road to Assist in Forging Chain of Guilt About Certain Big Monopolists.

Cleveland, O., July 17.—Basing his opinion upon the testimony already submitted to the federal grand jury in this district, Attorney General Moody believes that the government has at last secured the evidence which will lead to bringing the Standard Oil company to its knees.

The return of District Attorney Sullivan Monday morning from an all day conference with the attorney general Sunday at New York will mark a complete change in the plans of the government in connection with the fight to stamp trade discriminations in favor of giant corporations. The change of plans includes a complete reversal regarding G. J. Grammer, vice president of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway. Grammer will not be indicted in this or any other federal district. Instead, he will be asked to assist the government in forging a chain of evidence about the necks of some of the biggest Standard Oil officials in the country.

Acting upon the orders of District Attorney Sullivan, Assistant District Attorney Garry issued another subpoena for the appearance of Grammer before the grand jury. Grammer was immediately served with the subpoena. He seemed pleased with the turn of events, which makes it certain that he is not to be made the scape goat for violations of the law on the part of others.

To Enrich Standard Oil.
The switch on the part of the government in finally deciding to summon Grammer as a witness is explained by the statement that the single desire of the department of justice at present is to get at the Standard Oil company. A telegram from District Attorney Sullivan said that nothing was to be left undone to accomplish this purpose. The attorney general is firmly of the opinion that indictments can be secured here, and District Attorney Sullivan resumed work with the grand jury with this end in view.

In addition to ordering the issuance of a subpoena for Grammer, Sullivan wired to have all the employees of the Lake Shore railway who have testified before the grand jury recalled. These witnesses include James L. Clark, western traffic manager, and C. A. Slauson, freight agent of Chicago; M. C. Tully, R. H. Huddleston, G. B. Wheeler, and H. L. Meyer, all employed in the Cleveland offices.

It is known that the government officials are eager to obtain one more link in the evidence already secured against the Standard Oil company. A most determined effort will be made to complete the chain through Grammer and Clark. What the government officials want particularly is the names of the Standard Oil company officials through whom it is charged, rebating arrangements were made with the Lake Shore and other railways. With these names in their possession the government attorneys will be ready to strike.

Will Insist on Names.
It was said that any efforts on the part of witnesses to withhold information or practice evasion would meet with prompt action on the part of the government officials. The attorneys are certain that some one of the witnesses to be called knows the definite information so greatly desired. The plan is to force the giving of the names and facts by real sweatbox examination before the grand jury.

District Attorney Sullivan gave no intimation in his dispatch as to the Standard Oil company officials he will go after. That the exact program was mapped out down to the minutest detail with the attorney general was admitted.

HEARD ONLY IN AMERICA.

English Newspaper Criticizes Our Use of the Phrase "Say"—Its Real Meaning.

An American story in Office Window began, as many American stories begin, with "say." Now, how many English readers know the person and the sense of the American "say"? Does it stand for "tell me" or for "I say"? For the first there is the familiar French analogy, the "dis" of the perpetual question of the French child, and the "ditte" of common talk in later life. But a correspondent who had for half a lifetime read the American story in this sense was obliged to change it for the vulgar and exceedingly silly and quite superfluous phrase of our own streets. For he put the matter to Americans in America, and they all assured him that "say" was nothing but "I say" further vulgarized. And yet "tell me" is a beginning that has won a man more friends than any other opening in the customs of conversation. Nothing in the world makes a new acquaintance go more favorably.—London Chronicle.

The "Temperament" Excuse.
Sometimes you hear an excuse for faults. "It is my temperament." Do you not know that the perversions of a temperament are not the temperament itself? There never was a temperament that had not its good as well as its evil possibilities. The truth is that we inherit our temperament with its natural perversions, and it is our business in life to shake off the perversions in order that we may find the veritable temperament itself, and that it may carry us on truly to the best work that such a temperament can do. If all who have excused themselves for selfishness and evil because of the "artistic temperament" had recognized that they were really excusing the perversions of their temperament, and not the temperament itself, much needless pain and sorrow might have been avoided.—American Magazine.

Worth Little, Indeed.
"Darling," he said, hoarsely, "I love you better than my very life."
"And—suppose I should refuse you?" asked the beautiful girl.
"Then I should kill myself."
"Gracious! Your life must be worth a great deal."—Chicago Daily News.
